

Columbia/HCA

February 1, 2004

After six years of demanding litigation, BLB&G obtains the most comprehensive corporate governance reforms ever achieved as result of shareholder legal action. The new governance plan is described by the court as "an exceptional benefit" to the shareholders -- and a model for corporate America.