

Tyco

January 1, 2009

Buoyed by substantiated allegations of egregious fraud at Tyco International, including admitted accounting fraud and successful criminal convictions of Tyco's CEO and other former officers accused of stealing millions from the company, BLB&G pursues a direct action against Tyco on behalf prominent mutual funds, hedge funds and individual investors and recovers over $105 million for its clients – an amount representing over nine times the class action recovery.