Jimmy practices out of the firm's New York office, prosecuting securities fraud, corporate governance, and shareholder rights litigation on behalf of the firm's institutional investor clients.

He is a member of the firm's New Matter Department, in which he, as part of a team of attorneys, financial analysts, and investigators, counsels public pension funds and other institutional investors on potential legal claims.

Prior to joining the firm, Jimmy investigated and prosecuted securities fraud with the New York State Office of the Attorney General's Investor Protection Bureau, where he worked on a number of high-profile matters. While in law school, Jimmy was honored as a John Marshall Harlan Scholar and served as a Staff Editor for the New York Law School Law Review.
