Aasiya Glover practices out of the firm's New York office and prosecutes securities fraud, corporate governance, and shareholder rights litigation on behalf of the firm's institutional investor clients.

Prior to joining BLB&G, Aasiya worked as a litigation associate at one of the nation's premier law firms, concentrating on complex civil litigation and international arbitration with a specific focus on securities litigation, consumer class actions, investor-state disputes, and contract disputes. While there, Aasiya served as a Rapporteur for the ICCA-ASIL Task Force on Damages, which created the first and only publicly available web app on damages in international arbitration (DIA). Aasiya also had an active pro bono practice, representing clients in capital, immigration, asylum, transgender rights, and civil rights cases.

Aasiya received her J.D. from the University of Chicago, during which time she also interned for the Council on American-Islamic Relations. She has also earned an MPhil in English: Criticism and Culture from the University of Cambridge, and a B.A. with Highest Distinction from Indiana University, where she double-majored in English and Speechwriting. Prior to law school, Aasiya served as a Corps Member in City Year Chicago.
