Anthony Calvano is a partner in BLB&G's Delaware office, prosecuting corporate governance and shareholder rights litigation on behalf of the firm's institutional investor clients. With nearly a decade of experience, Anthony leverages his deep knowledge of the Delaware courts to provide BLB&G's clients with first-rate representation and advice.

Anthony has a wealth of experience handling complex fiduciary duty, merger-related, and stockholder rights disputes in the Delaware Court of Chancery. He is also highly skilled in litigating claims arising from mergers and acquisitions in Delaware's state and federal courts.

Before joining BLB&G, Anthony practiced at Ross Aronstam & Moritz, where he focused on complex commercial litigation, including representing stockholders in high-stakes corporate governance litigation. He previously served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Vice Chancellor J. Travis Laster of the Delaware Court of Chancery. Anthony began his legal career as a corporate litigation associate at elite corporate defense firm Richards, Layton & Finger.

Anthony received his J.D. magna cum laude from Notre Dame Law School. There, he served as editor-in-chief of the Notre Dame Journal of International & Comparative Law and was named a Dean's Circle Fellow.
