Chloe Jasper practices out of the firm's Los Angeles office and prosecutes securities fraud, corporate governance, and shareholder rights litigation on behalf of the firm's institutional investor clients.

Prior to joining the firm, Chloe was an associate at a premier international law firm, specializing in litigation and arbitration. As a law student, Chloe clerked for the Civil Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of California.

Chloe received her J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School, during which time she served as Associate Editor for the Michigan Journal of Law Reform and worked as a student attorney and supervisor for the Michigan Law Workers' Rights Clinic, representing Michigan workers denied unemployment benefits in administrative hearings and on appeal. She also served as a student attorney for the Child Advocacy Clinic and studied international law at the University of Amsterdam while conducting research on Dutch and European neonaticide laws. She graduated with a B.A. in Government from Wesleyan University.
