

Gary Weston

Managing Director of Paralegals and Managing Clerk, New York 212.554.1408
garyw@blbglaw.com

Gary Weston is responsible for the management and oversight of the firm's paralegal and managing clerk departments. He works closely with the leadership of all of the firm's active litigation teams to ensure proper research, clerical, and logistical support.

Gary has more than three decades of experience as a senior paralegal professional and has been working in the securities class action field since 2003. Prior to joining BLB&G, he worked as a corporate paralegal at Olshan Frome Wolosky LLP.

Gary received his Paralegal Certificate from New York University, and also holds a Registered Paralegal Certification from the National Federation of Paralegal Associations. He is an active member of the New York City Paralegal Association.

Education

- New York University, Paralegal Certificate