Laura Marvelli, a certified fraud examiner, has nearly 10 years of investigatory experience.

Prior to starting her role at BLB&G, Laura worked at Gryphon Strategies as Director of Litigation Support and Business Intelligence. There, she lent her talents to complex domestic and international litigations, interviewing witnesses, composing detailed reports, completing asset traces, co-managing due-diligence workflows and conducting high-volume risk analyses. Laura is also a licensed New York State Private Investigator.

Laura graduated magna cum laude from Marist College with a B.S. in Criminal Justice and a minor in Psychology. While pursuing her degree, Laura interned at the Dutchess County Public Defender's Office and the New York State Police. After graduation, Laura worked as a Research Analyst at J.P. Morgan before clerking at Paul Dinto Electrical Contractors and honing her skills in developing evidence as an SIU Field Investigator at Sedgwick CMS.
