

Reid Horovitz

Chief Operating Officer, New York
212.554.1432
reid.horovitz@blbglaw.com

Reid Horovitz, BLB&G's Chief Operating Officer, is the principal business executive responsible for leading the firm's operational, financial, and administrative functions. In this capacity, he works with the firm's Executive Committee and staff management teams to ensure the effective and efficient operation of the firm's business, including delivering exceptional and innovative services to the firm's clients and a model workplace for the firm's attorneys and staff.

Reid has more than 25 years of broad-based legal industry experience as a law firm business leader, senior in-house counsel, and practicing attorney. Prior to joining BLB&G, Reid worked at the global law firm Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe for 13 years, most recently as Chief Operating Officer and Chief of Staff.

Reid received his MBA from Columbia Business School, his J.D. from Boston University School of Law and his B.S. from Carnegie Mellon University.

Education

- Columbia Business School, M.B.A.
- Boston University School of Law, J.D.
- Carnegie Mellon University, B.S.