Rich.Gluck@blbglaw.com

Rich Gluck has more than 30 years of litigation and trial experience in bet-the-company cases. His practice focuses on securities fraud, corporate governance, and shareholder rights litigation. He has been named a Super Lawyer in securities litigation, named one of San Diego's "Top Lawyers" practicing complex business litigation, and recognized for achieving "the highest levels of ethical standards and professional excellence" by Martindale Hubbell®.

Since joining BLB&G, Rich has been a key member of the teams prosecuting a number of high-profile cases, including several RMBS class and direct actions against a number of large Wall Street Banks. He was a senior attorney on the team prosecuting the In re Lehman Brothers Equity/Debt Securities Litigation, which resulted in over $615 million for investors and is considered one of the largest total recoveries for shareholders in any case arising from the financial crisis. Specifically, he was instrumental in developing important evidence that led to the $99 million settlement with Lehman's former auditor, Ernst & Young – one of the top 10 auditor settlements ever achieved. He also was a senior member of the teams that prosecuted the RMBS class actions against Bear Stearns, which settled for $500 million; JPMorgan, which settled for $280 million; and Morgan Stanley, which settled for $95 million. He was also a key member of the trial teams that prosecuted the litigations against MF Global, which recovered $234.3 million on behalf of investors; Wilmington Trust, which settled for $210 million; and Genworth, which settled for $219 million.

Before joining BLB&G, Rich represented corporate and individual clients in securities fraud and consumer class actions, SEC investigations and enforcement actions, and in actions involving claims of fraud, breach of contract and misappropriation of trade secrets in state and federal courts and in arbitration. He has substantial trial experience, having obtained verdicts or awards for his clients in multi-million dollar lawsuits and arbitrations. Prior to entering private practice, Rich clerked for Judge William H. Orrick of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California.

Rich currently is a senior member of the teams prosecuting In re Qualcomm, Inc. Securities Litigation, Felix v. Symantec Corp., and Public Employees' Retirement System of Mississippi v. Mohawk Industries, Inc. He practices out of the firm's Los Angeles office.

Rich is a former President of the San Diego Chapter of the Association of Business Trial Lawyers and currently is a member of its Board of Governors.
