

Robert Shah

Managing Director of Finance, New York
212.554.1911
robert.shah@blbglaw.com

Robert Shah is an innovative and results-oriented finance executive with over 25 years of experience in large, multi-national and mid-size law firms. He has an extensive background in financial reporting, analysis, forecasting, tax preparation, budgeting, cash management and controls.

Working closely with the Chief Operating Officer, Robert's responsibilities include the supervision and management of the finance department and its staff.

Before joining BLB&G, Robert was the Director of Finance at Grais & Ellsworth LLP, the Chief Financial Officer for Tannenbaum Helpert Syracuse & Hirschtritt LLP, and Controller at McCarter and English LLP as well as Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP.

Robert received his B.S. in Accounting from the State University of New York at Buffalo with a concentration in Finance.

Education

- State University of New York at Buffalo, B.S., Accounting