

Whistleblower Practice

Overview

BLB&G's Whistleblower Practice empowers individuals to expose fraud by combining the firm's deep knowledge of the government's enforcement process, advanced data analytics capabilities, seasoned in-house investigators, and team of elite trial lawyers.

Led by Partner Li Yu, who has more than a decade of experience as a federal prosecutor, our team guides clients through every stage of blowing the whistle on fraud and, where appropriate, litigation—protecting their confidentiality while maximizing the potential for a financial award and meaningful public impact.

How It Benefits You

What Sets Us Apart

Deep knowledge of the government enforcement process at the DOJ, SEC, CFTC, and U.S. Attorney Offices nationwide.

In-house data analysis team that can locate and analyze the relevant data to identify key features of fraud and assess its scope.

In-house investigative team, including certified fraud examiners and experienced investigators.
Proven courtroom firepower with over $40 billion in financial recoveries in complex fraud cases.
Contingency-fee representation and no-cost confidential consultations.

Ensures your submission reaches the right decision-makers and fits the government's enforcement goals.

Pinpoints the mechanics of the fraud scheme and the potential damages—crucial to convincing enforcement agencies to act.

Rapid, discreet fact-gathering to strengthen your claim from day one.

Shows defendants that you are backed by a firm that can—and will—litigate to verdict.

You pay nothing unless we obtain a recovery on your behalf.
